

LOCAL ATTORNEY APPEARS ON "COMCAST NEWSMAKERS"

Jenkintown, Pa -- Sean P. Kilkenny, shareholder of the law firm Friedman Schuman, P.C. and president of Jenkintown Borough Council, recently appeared on the regional television feature "Comcast Newsmakers" to speak about current municipal issues.

Kilkenny is a leading expert on this subject. In addition to his borough position in Jenkintown, he chairs the municipal law division of Friedman Schuman. The law firm now serves as solicitor for 10 municipal entities in Montgomery and Bucks Counties, making it the fastest growing municipal law firm in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

The firm, celebrating its 20th anniversary, overall grew more than 25 per cent last year and recently moved into expanded headquarters on Greenwood Avenue in Jenkintown to accommodate future growth.

"Comcast Newsmakers" is a five-minute interview program airing on Headline News that provides news and information from people making a difference. Elected officials, public servants and community leaders connect viewers to the important issues, events and organizations that are shaping our community. Each segment airs an average of twice a day for seven days. The interviews fit seamlessly into the Headline News 30-minute rotation, airing at :24 and :54 past the hour on most days until 7:00 p.m., Monday through Friday and on various schedules on weekends.

Friedman Schuman P.C., founded in 1988, is a growing regional law firm concentrating in real estate law and transactions; municipal law; personal injury and commercial litigation; business law; banking and estate administration; and trademark registration.

For further information go to www.fsalaw.com.

###